11	CONCILIATION AGREEMENT
13	This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission ("Commission"), pursuant
14	to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its appervisory responsibilities.
15	The Commission found reason to believe that Cannon for Congress and its treasurer
16	("Committee") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as
17	amended ("the Act") and 11 C.F.R. §§ 102.9(e)(3), 110.1(b)(3)(i), and 110.2(b)(3)(i).
18	NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondents, having participated in
19	informal methods of conciliation, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree
20	as follows:
21	I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Committee and the subject matter of
22	this proceeding, and this agreement has the effect of an agreement entered pursuant to 2 U.S.C.
23	§ 437g(a)(4)(A)(i).
24	II. The Committee has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action
25	should be taken in this matter.
26	III. The Committee enters voluntarily into this agreement with the Commission.
27	IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:
28

Applicable Law

- At the time of the activities in this matter, the Act prohibited persons from making contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committee with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $2,300. 2 U.S.C.
  § 441a(a)(1)(A).
- 2. The Act prohibits any multicandidate political committee from making contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committee with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A).
- 3. The Act prohibits any candidate or political committee from knowingly accepting any contributions that exceed the limits established by 2 U.S.C. § 441a. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).
- 4. A committee may accept a contribution designated in writing for a particular election, but made after that election, only if the contribution does not exceed the net debts outstanding for that election. To the extent that such contribution exceeds the net debts outstanding, the committee shall return or deposit the contribution within ten days from the date of receipt, and if deposited, then within 60 days from the date of receipt, the committee must (1) refund the contributions using a committee check or draft; or (2) obtain a written redesignation by the dontributor for another election in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(5); or (3) obtain a written reattribution to another contributor in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(k)(3). 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(3)(i); see also 11 C.F.R. § 110.2(b)(3).
- 5. A committee calculates its net debts outstanding from a particular election based on the total amount of debts and obligations incurred for an election, less the sum of:(1) the total cash on hand available to pay the debts and obligations, (2) the total

- amounts owed to the candidate or committee; and (3) the amount of personal loans made by the candidate that in aggregate exceed $250,000 per election. 11 C.F.R. $110.1(b)(3)(ii).
  - 6. A committee may accept contributions that are designated for use in connection with the general election prior to the date of the primary election if the committee employs an acceptable accounting method to distinguish between contributions received for the primary election and contributions received for the general election. 11 C.F.R. § 102.9(e)(1).
  - 7. An authorized committee's records must demonstrate that, prior to the primary election, recorded cash on hand was at all times equal to or in excess of the sum of general election contributions received less the sum of general election disbursements made. 11 C.F.R. § 102.9(e)(2).
  - 8. If a candidate is not a candidate in the general election, a committee shall return, refund to the contributors, redesignate in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(5), or reattribute in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(k)(3), any contributions designated for the general election within 60 days of the primary election. 11 C.F.R. §§ 102.9(e)(3), 110.1(b)(3)(i), and 110.2(b)(3)(i). See AO 1992-15 (Russo for Congress) at 2 ("Nonetheless, the Commission concludes that for losing primary candidates, like Mr. Russo, who receive contributions before the primary election that are designated for the general election, redesignation within 60 days of the primary election date would be permissible."); AO 2007-03 (Obama for America) at 3 ("If a candidate fails to qualify for the general election, any contributions designated for the general election that have been received from contributors who have already reached

1	their contribution limit for the primary election would exceed FECA's contribution
2	limits.").
3	Factual Background
4	9. The Committee was the principal campaign committee of Christopher Cannon during
5	the 2008 election cycle.
6	10. Christopher Cannon became the treasurer of Cannon for Congress on March 19, 2010
7	solely to expedite the resolution of the Committee's outstanding issues. Christopher
8	Cannon was not the treasurer at any time during the 2008 election cycle when the
9	conduct that gave rise to this matter occurred. He is only named in this agreement in
10	his official capacity because he is the current treasurer of the Committee.
11	11. Beginning in mid-2007 through the middle of 2008, Respondents reported general
12	election contributions totaling $113,996.50. The contributions came from 20
13	individuals ($20,996.50), 34 political action committees ($92,000), and one
14	communication cost group (i.e., a trade association reporting communication costs on
15	FEC Form 7) ($1,000).
16	12. Christopher Cannon was defeated in the Republican primary election on June 24,
17	2008.
18	13. The Committee has demonstrated that $30,400 in general election contributions could
19	not be redesignated, because these contributors had either objected to redesignation or
20	contributed the maximum amount allowable for both the 2008 primary election and
21	the Republican state convention.

14. The Committee has demonstrated that $83,596.50 in general election contributions

15. The Committee redesignated $32,096.50 to the primary or convention elections.

could have been redesignated to the primary or convention elections.

- 1 16. The Committee provided a copy of the notice sent to contributors that were eligible for redesignation.
  - 17. The Committee did not employ an accounting method to distinguish between contributions received for the primary election and contributions received for the general election, and it used contributions designated for the general election to pay for primary election costs.
  - 18. The Committee could not reattribute the general election contributions because reattribution would not remedy the Committee's acceptance of contributions designated for an election in which Cannon was not participating.
  - 19. The Committee did not refund excessive contributions within 60 days of the primary election.
  - V. The Committee committed the following violations:
    - The Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by knowingly accepting $30,400 in contributions designated for the general election from individuals and multicandidate committees.
    - 2. The Committee violated 11 C.F.R. §§ 102.9(e)(3), 110.1(b)(3)(i), and 110.2(b)(3)(i) by failing to refund, redesignate, or reattribute $83,595.50 in contributions designated for the general election within 60 days of the primary.
  - VI. The Committee will take the following actions in order to settle and end Matter
    Under Review 6235:
    - 1. In ordinary circumstances, the Commission would seek a substantially higher civil penalty based on the violations outlined in this agreement. However, the Commission is taking into account the fact that the Committee is defunct, has almost no cash on hand according to the evidence available, and has a limited ability to raise any

- additional funds. The Committee will pay a civil penalty to the Federal Election

  Commission in the amount of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), pursuant to 2 U.S.C.

  § 437(g)(5)(A).
  - 2. The Committee will convey a copy of the agreement to former Congressman Cannon, who has verified to the Committee that, in the event he ever decides to run for Federal office again, he will cause his authorized committee to set aside an additional $15,000 in campaign proceeds and may that amount as an additional givil permity relating to the matter herein, as well as refund to the contributors, or in the alternative, diagorge to the U.S. Treasury, the $30,400 in excessive contributions identified herein as received in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).
  - The Committee will cease and desist from violating 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), 11 C.F.R.
     §§ 102.9(e), 110.1(b)(3)(i), and 110.2(b)(3)(i).
  - 4. Within 30 days of the date this agreement becomes effective, the Committee will send one additional notice regarding redesignation to the contributors of $51,500 in multicandidate committee contributions that were designated for the 2008 general election, in violation of 11 C.F.R. §§ 102.9(e), 110.1(b)(3)(i), and 110.2(b)(3)(i).
  - VII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.
- VIII. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

1	IX. Except as provided, Respondents shall have no more than 30 days from the date
2	this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in
3	this agreement and to so notify the Commission.
4	X. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties
5	on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise, or agreement, either written or
6	oral, made by either party or by agents of either party, that is not contained in this written
7	agreement shall be enforceable.
